

The Acts of Ascension

Through My Window

By: Pastor
Jim Sprengle

Grace and peace to you,

"16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. 17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith for faith, as it is written, 'The righteous shall live by faith,'" (Romans 1:16-17 ESV). Before the Reformation, Martin Luther struggled to be righteous in God's eyes by doing all the right things. Luther was sent to Rome on a "business trip" to plead a case for his Augustinian monastery. While there, he also spent time trying to visit various spiritual sites. He became disillusioned with the way the Roman Catholic Church charged money for everything, along with corruption among the clergy and leadership. Luther paid a fee to climb some steps, on which he was to recite the Lord's Prayer for each step. He was supposed to receive grace and other blessings, but all he could recall thinking was, "The righteous shall live by faith." He was so troubled by this experience that he had a major breakthrough. Rather than us living up to God's righteousness, God gives righteousness to us by grace through faith. Luther's trip to Rome became a catalyst for the Reformation.

I attended my first LCMS National Convention as a pastoral delegate from July 28 to August 3. Before going, I prayed that my experience would not lead to disillusionment like Luther's trip to Rome. Organizations require systems of governance and management that can become tedious and fraught with tension. At times, debate became heated because the topics were emotional and close to the heart. Overall, my experience was an overwhelming blessing to my faith and life in our church body. I heard a clear Gospel message from many speakers and preachers. The worship, prayers, and teaching were excellent. The international Lutheran churches that were welcomed into fellowship with the LCMS each gave testimony to our agreement in doctrine and practice. Finally, many of the attendees, both lay and pastor, encouraged me with their zeal for faith and life in Christ. Perhaps the National Convention is a catalyst for me, not like Luther's experience with Rome, but instead to appreciate the blessings we have in the Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod.

In Christ,

Pr Jim

Gracia y paz para ti,

16 A la verdad, no me avergüenzo del evangelio, pues es poder de Dios para la salvación de todos los que creen: de los judíos primeramente, pero también de los gentiles. 17 De hecho, en el evangelio se revela la justicia que proviene de Dios, la cual es por fe de principio a fin, tal como está escrito: «El justo vivirá por la fe.» (Romanos 1:16-17 NVI) Antes de la Reforma, Martín Lutero luchó por ser justo a los ojos de Dios haciendo todas las cosas correctas. Lutero fue enviado a Roma en un "viaje de negocios" para defender un caso para su monasterio agustino. Mientras estuvo allí, también pasó tiempo tratando de visitar varios sitios espirituales. Se desilusionó con la forma en que la Iglesia Católica Romana cobraba dinero por todo, junto con la corrupción entre el clero y el liderazgo. Lutero pagó una tarifa para subir algunos escalones, en los que debía recitar el Padre Nuestro por cada paso. Se suponía que debía recibir gracia y otras bendiciones, pero todo lo que podía recordar haber pensado era: "Los justos vivirán por la fe". Estaba tan preocupado por esta experiencia que tuvo un gran avance. En lugar de que vivamos de acuerdo con la justicia de Dios, Dios nos da justicia por gracia a través de la fe. El viaje de Lutero a Roma se convirtió en un catalizador para la Reforma.

Asistí a mi primera Convención Nacional de LCMS como delegada pastoral del 28 de julio al 3 de agosto. Antes de ir, oré para que mi experiencia no condujera a la desilusión como el viaje de Lutero a Roma. Las organizaciones requieren sistemas de gobierno y gestión que pueden volverse tediosos y llenos de tensión. A veces, el debate se acaloraba porque los temas eran emocionales y cercanos al corazón. En general, mi experiencia fue una bendición abrumadora para mi fe y mi vida en nuestro cuerpo de iglesia. Escuché un claro mensaje evangélico de muchos oradores y predicadores. La adoración, las oraciones y la enseñanza fueron excelentes. Las iglesias luteranas internacionales que fueron bienvenidas en comunión con la LCMS dieron testimonio de nuestro acuerdo en la doctrina y la práctica. Finalmente, muchos de los asistentes, tanto laicos como pastores, me animaron con su celo por la fe y la vida en Cristo. Tal vez la Convención Nacional sea un catalizador para mí, no como la experiencia de Lutero con Roma, sino para apreciar las bendiciones que tenemos en la Iglesia Luterana – Sínodo de Missouri.

En Cristo,

Pr Jim

Pr Ruberto is heading up a translation project to print several publications in the Mayan language. He is working with several translators and a publisher, The Lutheran Heritage Foundation. The first project was the booklet called, "Jesus Never Fails" by Rev. Robert Rahn (Founder, Lutheran Heritage Foundation). 2500 booklets were printed in Mayan, and if you want to read the English version click on the following link:

<https://media.lhfmissions.org/file/lhf-missions/pdfs/English-LHF-Jesus-Never-Fails-booklet-1.pdf>. In addition to this booklet, which will be handed out here in America, along with any mission trips to Mexico or Guatemala, they will be working on the original Luther's Small Catechism (30 +/- pages), and later they will begin translation of the Bible. So far, we have donors supporting this project from different congregations. If you would like to help, Ascension can receive donations designated for "Mayan Translations".

Circuit Visitor Info –

I attended the LCMS National Convention - July 28 to August 3 in Milwaukee, WI as a Pastoral Delegate for Circuit 6. I presented on the process and important overtures we voted on during the Adult Bible Study on August 13. I will also give a presentation at the Circuit 6 Meeting on September 12 to other pastors in our area.

Immanuel, Sandy - I'm still covering one Sunday per month, while other pastors / vicar cover the remainder. They are exploring other options to seek a pastor with Peace, Estacada.

Christ the Vine, Damascus - Pr Kris Morris is retiring at year's end. I led the discussion at a special Voters Meeting on June 27, helping the congregation understand different options to calling a pastor. I will be attending a Voters Meeting on August 26 to assist the congregation in next steps in calling a pastor after Pr Morris retires.

River of Life, Troutdale - Met with leaders from River of Life regarding the closing process on July 27 at Ascension. Pr Brandt attended, giving helpful direction about closing procedures from his experience closing Faithful Savior Lutheran Church. Closing will take place over several months. In the meantime, Pr David Keil is covering services.

Immanuel, Hood River - Pastor Tyler Moore accepted the call. Installation information is TBD.

Calvary, Portland - Met with leadership on July 12 to discuss future plans after Pr Stenzel's departure. They have a small group of leaders who will keep Calvary "open" for the time being. The Horeb Oromo Evangelical Church purchased the building and are interested in becoming an LCMS congregation. The leaders of Calvary plan to attend the English services held each Sunday for the time being.

Peace, Estacada - Pr Stenzel's vacancy is forcing them to find another pastor as well. They are in contact with Immanuel, Sandy to see if they can share a pastor in the future.

Redeemer, Gresham - Pr Lange's new vicar is installed (Vicar Kreidler).

Faith, The Dalles - The new vicar, Jesse Brubaker, was installed in August (Pr Lange from Redeemer is his supervisor).

Miscellaneous –

Property Management

New phone system installed to save money on phone bills, which also gives many new features to our business lines.

Global Security will install new burglar and fire alarm systems in September. The equipment and monthly fees are significantly lower than other companies.

Individuals tried to steal the red van on July 27, and again on August 8. The initial break-in caused significant damage to the steering column and ignition, along with a couple of outside locks on the doors.

PASTOR'S REPORT

Fortunately, a dead battery prevented them from getting away with our vehicle. Repairs are underway, and the Council has decided to sell the van to prevent further loss. Unfortunately, it didn't get the amount of use we intended when we first purchased it.

A significant clean up of the yard debris area behind the dumpster took place on August 12. Thanks to the volunteers who took loads to the dump. Also, a load of bark dust was delivered in early August. The Alvarado family spread it throughout the property.

Outreach Board

Consistently setting up booths at various community events and handing out Gospel Bracelets, bibles, and inviting to learn more about Jesus. Please talk to Cindy Reinert for ways you can join this awesome outreach to our community!

On June 29, I celebrated 15 years of ordained ministry. The encouragement, many cards, and gifts were wonderful! In addition to all that, our planning group for Friendship Sunday and church luncheon emphasized "15 Years".

They decorated the Community Room, put together a slideshow of our congregation's past, and invited several people to share some funny stories and many kind words about me. Although I said a few words that day, I want to reiterate how much I appreciate the members and friends of Ascension who share in the challenges of ministry with me. The Lord has blessed me with a wonderful congregation to serve as Shepherd. Thank you all again for the thoughtful words, and the time and energy you gave to recognize our journey together under the Lord's guidance.

In Christ, Pastor Jim

Welcome to our Bible Study on the Book of Romans

We'll be diving into Paul's letter to the Romans, one of the most influential pieces of Christian literature ever written. This letter has been studied by Christians for centuries, and it still has a lot to teach us today. Luther once wrote, "This epistle is really the chief part of the New Testament, and is truly the purest gospel. It is worthy not only that every Christian should know it word for word, by heart, but also that he should occupy himself with it every day, as the daily bread of the soul. We can never read it or ponder over it too much; for the more we deal with it, the more precious it becomes and the better it tastes...."¹

Pastor Jim will begin this Bible study on September 17, and we'll be meeting every Sunday at the Adult Bible Class from 9:45-10:45am in the Community Room. Please come prepared to discuss the readings and to ask any questions you may have. We hope to see you there!

THE MAYAN DESTRUCTION

The first contact by the European colonial powers occurred in 1502 on the fourth voyage of Christopher Columbus. Soon conquistadors from Spain were invading in order to conquer and plunder the Mayans.

They brought horses and iron weapons into the battles, which the Mayans had never seen before.

The Spaniards exploited the rivalries between different Mayan kingdoms and pitched one against the other.

They brought new diseases, like smallpox, measles, and influenza. The Mayans had no immunity, and from 50-75% of the population succumbed in many places.

Nonetheless, it took two centuries for the Spanish invaders to fully conquer the tenacious Mayan armies.

The conquistadors were mandated by the Spanish king to convert the people to Catholicism. The early conquistadors and colonists enslaved the Mayans and forced them to convert. When Catholic missionaries arrived, they advocated for the end of slavery and forced conversions. The Dominican friar de las Casas wrote: "One could make a whole book... out of the atrocities, barbarities, murders, clearances, ravages, and other foul injustices perpetrated." Las Casas was instrumental in the introduction of laws in 1542 established by the Spanish Crown to control the excesses of the colonists, which made the missionaries very unpopular.

By the 18th century, the Mayan civilization had been destroyed. Their cities were replaced with new ones constructed in Spanish style. Plantations of sugarcane and coffee were established using local labor, making profitable exports back to Europe.

About six million Mayans still populate parts of Central America. 42% of the population in Guatemala is of Mayan descent. The largest Mayan concentration is in the Yucatan Peninsula, about 300,000. There are about a half million Mayans living now in the United States.

We here in Gresham have been blessed to have Mayan immigrants among us and in our congregations. From their Catholic backgrounds, they like Lutheran formal worship and our LCMS male clergy. They are conservative in their morals and have strong family values. They highly appreciate our emphasis on teaching the Bible and doctrine. Most of our Confirmation students now are from these families, and we now have an LCMS-certified Mayan pastor serving with us, Rev. Ruberto Ek Yah. We can anticipate that they are the future of our congregation.

SUNDAY SCHOOL IS SO MUCH FUN!

We are having so much fun at Sunday School. Take a look at the upcoming lessons for this month!

September 3 - LESSON 10: The Sermon on the Mount is the topic for this week's lesson, "Mountain Message." Jesus reminds His listeners not to worry about things they cannot control. The birds of the air and the flowers of the field serve as examples of God's continuing care for His creation. Likewise, we have no need for worry or anxiousness, because God provides and cares for us.

September 10 - LESSON 11: "A Weather Wonder" is the theme for this week's lesson. With the simple command, "Peace! Be still!" (Mark 4:39), Jesus proclaims His power over a storm strong enough to shake even experienced fishermen. With the disciples, we must ask, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?" (v. 41). How can your family respond to this question?

September 17 - LESSON 12: In our Christian education time this week, we study "A Life Restored." Jairus, a synagogue ruler, comes to Jesus, begging Him to heal his critically ill daughter. Along the way, servants come with news of his daughter's death. Taking along Peter, James, and John, Jesus ignores the mourners, takes the young girl by the hand, and tells her, "Arise." And rise she does, demonstrating Jesus' power over death itself.

September 24 - LESSON 13: "The Fish-and-Bread Sign" is the topic for the lesson this week. A crowd of at least five thousand men, plus women and children, gather to hear Jesus preach. When challenged to find a way to feed the hungry crowd, the disciples question how this is possible. Using just five barley loaves and two fish, Jesus feeds them all, with abundant leftovers. Discuss, "How does God provide food for His people today?"

Thank you for sharing your children with us! It is an honor to teach them about Jesus and the love He has for them. Please look at the calendar and make sure you fit Sunday School into your child's week! God bless you!

Michele
