Through My Window

By: Pastor
Jim Sprengle

Grace and peace to you,

<sup>4</sup> For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world-- our faith. <sup>5</sup> Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?" (1 John 5:4-5, ESV)

What a world we live in! Science and technology are changing at a rapid pace, and the medical field develops regular breakthroughs in new drugs and procedures. The modern conveniences we enjoy are too numerous to count. However, amidst the rapid advancements for good, we also witness the troubles that sin brings into our world. Science and technology, while beneficial, are sometimes exploited by criminals to steal billions of dollars annually. Medical procedures and miracle drugs, despite their advancements, possess limitations and occasionally bring more harm than good. In addition, our reliance on modern conveniences like phones, computers, and delivery services often hinders our physical activity, mental stimulation, and social interactions. It seems that any good arising from progress and change is often accompanied by equal trouble in other ways.

One of the greatest blessings of our life in Christ is the promise He offers in the Gospel of John: "In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world" (John 16:33 ESV). This victory, achieved by Jesus and celebrated especially by Christians on Easter Sunday, is bestowed upon us through our faith. John's first letter serves as a reminder that those who believe in Jesus Christ overcome the world (1 John 5:5). What kind of peace does this bring to our troubled hearts? Despite the tribulations and sins of the world, which often seem to overpower us and those we love, as well as the things we cherish and the progress we make, we emerge victorious. Jesus has triumphed, and through faith, He grants us the same victory.

With this profound victory in our lives, doesn't it seem good to share with others about our Rock in the storms of life? The world may continually disappoint, but Jesus continually prevails. We possess a gift to offer to the lost and brokenhearted—a gift that conquers the world. Enjoy the progress the world is making for our benefit, but remember when these things let us down, we have the victory in Christ!

Blessings, Pr. Jim

Gracia y paz para ti,

<sup>4</sup> Porque todo el que ha nacido de Dios vence al mundo. Ésta es la victoria que vence al mundo: nuestra fe. <sup>5</sup> ¿Quién es el que vence al mundo sino el que cree que Jesús es el Hijo de Dios?" (1 Juan 5:4, NVI)

¡En qué mundo vivimos! La ciencia y la tecnología están cambiando a un ritmo acelerado, y el campo de la medicina desarrolla avances regulares en nuevos medicamentos y procedimientos. Las comodidades modernas de las que disfrutamos son demasiado numerosas para contarlas. Sin embargo, en medio de los rápidos avances para el bien, también somos testigos de los problemas que el pecado trae a nuestro mundo. La ciencia y la tecnología, aunque beneficiosas, a veces son explotadas por los delincuentes para robar miles de millones de dólares al año. Los procedimientos médicos y los medicamentos milagrosos, a pesar de sus avances, poseen limitaciones y ocasionalmente traen más daño que bien. Además, nuestra dependencia de las comodidades modernas como teléfonos, computadoras y servicios de entrega a menudo dificulta nuestra actividad física, estimulación mental e interacciones sociales. Parece que cualquier bien que surja del progreso y del cambio suele ir acompañado de problemas iguales en otros aspectos.

Una de las bendiciones más grandes de nuestra vida en Cristo es la promesa que Él ofrece en el Evangelio de Juan: "En este mundo afrontarán aflicciones, pero ¡anídense! Yo he vencido al mundo," (Juan 16:33 NVI). Esta victoria, alcanzada por Jesús y celebrada especialmente por los cristianos el Domingo de Pascua, nos es otorgada a través de nuestra fe. La primera carta de Juan sirve como un recordatorio de que aquellos que creen en Jesucristo vencen al mundo (1 Juan 5:5). ¿Qué clase de paz trae esto a nuestros corazones atribulados? A pesar de las tribulaciones y los pecados del mundo, que a menudo parecen dominarnos a nosotros y a los que amamos, así como las cosas que apreciamos y el progreso que hacemos, salimos victoriosos. Jesús ha triunfado y, a través de la fe, nos concede la misma victoria.

Con esta profunda victoria en nuestras vidas, ¿no nos parece bueno compartir con otros acerca de nuestra Roca en las tormentas de la vida? El mundo puede decepcionar continuamente, pero Jesús prevalece indefectiblemente. Poseemos un regalo para ofrecer a los perdidos y con el corazón roto, un regalo que conquista el mundo. Disfruta del progreso que el mundo está haciendo para nuestro beneficio, pero recuerda que cuando estas cosas nos decepcionan, ¡tenemos la victoria en Cristo!

Bendiciones, Pr. Jim

AN EASTER MORNING PRAYER

As the world sings triumphant cries to heaven over death that you conquered, help us, Lord, tomorrow as well, when the dresses are put away and the candy is all eaten and on with life we go let us not forget.

The celebration of your resurrection over death is a celebration of life that should continue well beyond the sunrise service and the music, rehearsed for days prior; it is beyond the sign of spring, beyond the lily, beyond new lambs grazing in open fields.

Resurrection is a daily celebration over fear; man's greatest and most powerful enemy. Fear of tomorrow, fear of our yesterdays, fear of what shall become of our young our old our unborn.

Resurrection is replacing fear with physical action.

This alone, the most touching and profound of your signs that fear is dead and belief in you brings, not just hope but life.

What better living parable could You have brought? All fear death. All. Even in the garden, You took on our fear if for only moments, it was as real as our fears can be real and You knew then that this single enemy must be destroyed.

And, You sacrificed your life, leaving those who had been comfort, and follower; You left them behind, to conquer fear.

I shall cling to this now, and the tomorrows given me.

Peace and thanksgiving lifted unto you. Amen.

MANY WAYS TO HELP THE GUATEMALA MISSION

There are many ways to continue participating in the mission to Guatemala, begun by Immanuel Lutheran Church, Hood River. The mission organization is named "Child Beyond International." (305 9th St., Hood River, OR 97031, Telephone: 541-645-0451, website: info@childbeyond.org)

FINANCIALLY SUPPORT THE HOGAR

CBI (Child Beyond International) is currently renting a large compound for the Children's home and the mission team home. They have purchased a permanent large property where they will build a Children's home, Mission team home, learning center, gym, medical and professional offices, and a professional kitchen. They have started on the first phase of the property, the perimeter wall. The God's Grace Children's Home "Hogar de Ninos" current home is a large residence accommodating up to twenty children, plus staff. The Guatemalan government sends them children ages 0-5 whom they have rescued from an unsafe and /or neglectful environment.

In the CBI hogar, the children receive all of their much-needed physical, emotional, and spiritual care. CBI's goal is to restore children to their families, provided they are safe and will be able to thrive. If this is not possible, they work with agencies that will help them find a new forever home for each child. Through their Family Transformation Ministry, each child is checked on regularly either in their new home or via facetime to ensure they are still being cared for properly once they leave the hogar.

Some children are assigned for adoption with a loving family

The cost of supporting one child for a month is $40.

The cost of supporting one staff member (nannies, cooks, gardeners, etc. is $60 a month.

CBI also uses local churches and visiting mission teams to connect with restored children back in their communities, to help prevent relapse into abuse and neglect.

MISSION TRIP TO THE HOGAR

CBI has a Mission Team home, food service, and a van to host mission teams who want to join in caring for the hogar children. Teams can choose to do a mission project at their Children's home including art projects, games, lessons, and puppet theater, outdoor projects with the children.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

CBI is also involved in community projects to help the families in need: Building efficiency wood stoves ($250), providing home water filters ($55), assisting a medical team (using CBI's medical 4M bus), and building a 2-bedroom home ($4000). Mission team members can participate in these projects.

VIRTUAL MISSION TRIP

Can't go in person? Contact CBI and sign up for a virtual mission trip. See what is going on and learn the culture, geography, and history of Guatemala. Go to their website for more information: ChildBeyond.org

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

Last week we decorated stones and wrote verses or Ascension Lutheran Church on them. We then took them to the park, putting them in places that were easily found. It was a fun class and a great reminder that the church is built on the Rock of Jesus and that we can share this good news with those around us!

ALC Women's Retreat

We had an amazing time at our Companionship Others During Difficult Times retreat in February. The beautiful house was the perfect place for growing our faith and learning more about being the hands and feet of Jesus. After the weather making us cancel the initial date of the retreat, it was a bonus to have great weather. The sunshine was certainly a smile from above!
