

The Acts of Ascension

Through My Window

By: Pastor
Jim Sprengle

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

As we begin a new year together, it is fitting that we start not with our plans, resolutions, or aspirations, but with what God gives. As believers, before we do anything, we receive. By grace through faith we are saved as a gift, (Ephesians 2:8-9). So, the Lord gives us life before we begin living for Him. It seems good to highlight the word “living” as the gift God provides us and how we respond. Our first and foundational goal for the coming year is simply: Living from the Word.

Scripture teaches us that “faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the Word of Christ,” (Romans 10:17). This means that the Christian life does not begin with our commitment to God, but with God speaking to us. Through His Word, the Lord creates faith where there was none, strengthens faith where it is weak, and comforts faith where it is burdened. The Word of God is not merely information about God; it is God’s chosen instrument by which He is actively at work among His people.

In a world filled with constant noise, opinions, and distractions, it is easy for even faithful Christians to drift from the steady voice of Scripture. We may assume we already know what God’s Word says, or we may slowly replace it with other voices that seem more urgent or influential. Yet Scripture remains what it has always been: “breathed out by God” and given “for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness,” (2 Timothy 3:16).

To live from the Word is not simply to own a Bible. It is to place ourselves where God has promised to meet us – through the reading and hearing of Scripture in worship, through study and catechesis, and through daily engagement with God’s Word in our homes. When we put ourselves where God promises to meet us, we are not accomplishing an amazing feat or following through on a New Year’s resolution, we are simply receiving what God loves to provide for us.

This goal is not about checking spiritual boxes or comparing ourselves to others. It is about trust – trust that God actually does what He says He will do through His Word. It is about humility, acknowledging that we are always in need of God’s instruction, correction, and comfort. It is also about confidence, knowing that the same Word that forgives sins and gives eternal life is also able to guide us through both the ordinary and the challenging times of daily life.

As we move into 2026, everything else we do as a congregation flows from this foundation. Discipleship, service, fellowship, and witness all depend on God first speaking to us. May this year be one in which we place ourselves more intentionally under His Word, trusting that He will accomplish His good and gracious purposes among us. “Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path” (Psalm 119:105).

Living from the Word,

Pr Jim

¡Gracia y paz a ustedes, de Dios nuestro Padre y del Señor Jesucristo!

Al comenzar juntos un nuevo año, es apropiado que no iniciemos con nuestros planes, resoluciones o aspiraciones, sino con lo que Dios nos da. Como creyentes, antes de hacer cualquier cosa, recibimos. Por gracia somos salvos mediante la fe; esto no procede de nosotros, sino que es un don de Dios (Efesios 2:8-9). Así, el Señor nos da vida antes de que comencemos a vivir para Él. Por eso es bueno resaltar la palabra “vivir” como el don que Dios nos concede y también como la manera en que respondemos a ese don. Nuestro primer y fundamental objetivo para el año que viene es simplemente este: Vivir de la Palabra.

La Sagrada Escritura nos enseña que “la fe viene por el oír, y el oír por la palabra de Cristo” (Romanos 10:17). Esto significa que la vida cristiana no comienza con nuestro compromiso con Dios, sino con Dios hablándonos a nosotros. Por medio de Su Palabra, el Señor crea fe donde no la había, fortalece la fe donde es débil y consuela la fe cuando está cargada. La Palabra de Dios no es solamente información acerca de Dios; es el instrumento que Dios ha escogido para obrar activamente entre Su pueblo.

En un mundo lleno de ruido constante, opiniones y distracciones, es fácil que incluso los cristianos fieles se aparten poco a poco de la voz firme de la Escritura. Podemos suponer que ya sabemos lo que dice la Palabra de Dios, o podemos reemplazarla lentamente con otras voces que parecen más urgentes o influyentes. Sin embargo, la Escritura sigue siendo lo que siempre ha sido: “inspirada por Dios y útil para (Continúa en la página 2) enseñar, para redargüir, para corregir y para instruir en justicia" (2 Timoteo 3:16).

Vivir de la Palabra no significa simplemente tener una Biblia en casa. Significa colocarnos donde Dios ha prometido encontrarnos: en la lectura y escucha de la Escritura en el culto, en el estudio y la catequesis, y en el contacto diario con la Palabra de Dios en nuestros hogares. Cuando nos colocamos donde Dios promete encontrarnos, no estamos logrando una gran hazaña ni cumpliendo un propósito de Año Nuevo; simplemente estamos recibiendo lo que Dios se complace en darnos.

Este objetivo no se trata de cumplir requisitos espirituales ni de compararnos con otros. Se trata de confianza: confiar en que Dios realmente hace lo que promete por medio de Su Palabra. Se trata de humildad, reconociendo que siempre necesitamos la instrucción, la corrección y el consuelo que Dios nos da. Y también se trata de confianza plena, sabiendo que la misma Palabra que perdona los pecados y concede la vida eterna es capaz de guiarnos tanto en los momentos ordinarios como en los desafíos de la vida diaria.

Al avanzar hacia el año 2026, todo lo demás que hacemos como congregación fluye de este fundamento. El discipulado, el servicio, la comunión y el testimonio dependen de que Dios sea quien primero nos hable. Que este sea un año en el que nos coloquemos de manera más intencional bajo Su Palabra, confiando en que Él cumplirá Sus buenos y misericordiosos propósitos entre nosotros. "Lámpara es a mis pies tu palabra, y lumbrera a mi camino" (Salmo 119:105).

Vivir de la Palabra,

Pr Jim

VOTER'S ASSEMBLY

Everyone is invited to join in the decisions of the church at the upcoming Voter's Assembly on Jan 25 after the 11:00am worship service. We will meet in the Community room.

Members are allowed to vote on any business after they have signed in at one prior Voter's Meeting.

LIFE SUNDAY:

A Time to Support Life

Mark your calendars! Sunday, February 15, is Life Sunday, a special opportunity for our congregation to celebrate, honor, and support the precious gift of life. From January through Life Sunday, the Human Care Board is inviting the congregation to participate in a focused giving effort benefiting Ava Health.

Ava Health serves women, children, and families in our community by offering compassionate care, practical resources, and life-affirming support. To assist in this ministry, we are welcoming monetary donations as well as layette items to help provide for newborns in need. Suggested items include diapers, onesies, receiving blankets, and other essential newborn supplies. Donations may be placed in the baby crib located in the narthex.

On Life Sunday, February 15, we will gather to bless these offerings and donated items before they are delivered to Ava Health on Burnside in Gresham. Through your generosity, you help provide tangible support, encouragement, and hope to mothers and their precious little ones.

Thank you for prayerfully considering how you can participate and for standing together as a congregation committed to cherishing and protecting the sanctity of life.
