

GOOD FRIDAY

CRUCIFIXION AND DEATH

ASCENSION LUTHERAN CHURCH
GOOD FRIDAY – April 18, 2025

ORDER OF TENEBRAE

The Tenebrae Service is traditional in the Christian Church and is used during the last days of Holy Week to impress upon the hearts and minds of believers the awe-filled consequence of sin and the magnitude of the Savior's sacrifice.

The word Tenebrae means "darkness." It indicates the darkness which covered the earth at the time of Christ's crucifixion. This darkness is visually portrayed in this service through the gradual extinguishing of the candles and other lights in the church.

The candles traditionally represent the disciples and other followers of our Lord. They gradually take to flight. The ensuing darkness symbolizes the growing resentment and hatred of the world toward the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Paschal candle symbolizes the Savior Himself. Near the end of the service it is removed from the candle-holder to symbolize the death of Jesus. The candle is not extinguished, but is carried from the chancel. ("A little while and ye shall not see Me.") During the time the Paschal candle is removed, the silence is broken by a noise which symbolizes our participation in the crucifixion of our Lord. The Paschal candle is then returned to its place after "a little while" to remind us that Christ rose again.

LITURGY OF THE CROSS

Colossians 2:13-14 "And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with Him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This, He set aside, nailing it to the cross."

If you find it meaningful, use a sheet of paper in the pew rack to write a personal sin, a stronghold of Satan in your life, a guilt that won't go away, or a struggle that you want to give to God. Take the folded sheet with you, nailing it to the cross. No one will look at these sheets of paper. Pastor Jim will place them in a sealed envelope, and they will be destroyed after the service as a sign of our sins being nailed to the cross and buried. Again, this is optional. You may simply want to drive your nail into the cross using the words in your worship folder: "Lord Jesus, You were crucified for me. Lord, have mercy."

“Within the Shadow of the Cross”

Words by D. Besig and N. Price; Music by D. Besig
Ascension Choir

(written from the perspective of a fictional boy at the crucifixion)

Within the shadow of the cross He stood on Calvary;

A little boy, alone and lost, a little child like me.

Within the shadow of the cross he turned and raised his eyes.

He wondered who this stranger was; Why did He have to die?

The angry mob cried out with scorn; they showed no shame nor grief,

But silence fell upon them as the man began to speak.

Although His voice was faint and weak, the words were clear and true:

“Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.”

Within the shadow of the cross the child began to cry,

He felt the pain; he felt a loss; he watched the stranger die.

Then all at once the air was cold, the sky was dark and gray;

And those who watched were filled with fear, they turned and went away.

But through the storm the child remained; his fears were all but gone.

Now he knew the answer: he had felt the touch of God!

Within the shadow of the cross he knelt on Calvary,

No longer alone, no longer lost, a child of God like you and me.

WELCOME

INVOCATION

P In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

HYMN “O Dearest Jesus What Law Have You Broken”

O dearest Jesus, what law have You broken
That such sharp sentence should on You be spoken?
Of what great crime have You to make confession,
What dark transgression?

READINGS

Isaiah 52:13–53:12 (ESV)

(He was pierced for our transgressions.)

¹³ Behold, My servant shall act wisely; He shall be high and lifted up, and shall be exalted. ¹⁴ As many were astonished at You—His appearance was so marred, beyond human semblance, and His form beyond that of the children of mankind—¹⁵ so shall He sprinkle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths because of Him; for that which has not been told them they see, and that which they have not heard they understand.

¹ Who has believed what he has heard from us? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed? ² For He grew up before Him like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground; He had no form or majesty that we should look at Him, and no beauty that we should desire Him. ³ He was despised and rejected by men; a Man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; and as one from whom men hide their faces He was despised, and we esteemed Him not. ⁴ Surely He has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed Him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. ⁵ But He was pierced for our transgressions; He was crushed for our iniquities;

They crown Your head with thorns,
They smite, they scourge You,
With cruel mockings to the cross they urge You;
They give You gall to drink, they still decry You;
They crucify You.

P (v. 5b–6)

upon Him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with His wounds we are healed. ⁶ All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned—every one—to his own way; and the Lord has laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

What is the source of all Your mortal anguish?
It is my sins for which You, Lord, must languish;
Yes, all the wrath, the woe that You inherit,
This I do merit.

P (v. 7–9)

⁷ He was oppressed, and He was afflicted, yet He opened not His mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so He opened not His mouth. ⁸ By oppression and judgment He was taken away; and as for His generation, who considered that He was cut off out of the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of My people? ⁹ And they made His grave with the wicked and with a rich man in His death, although He had done no violence, and there was no deceit in His mouth.

How strange is this great paradox to ponder:
The shepherd dies for sheep who love to wander;
The master pays the debt His servants owe Him,
Who would not know Him.

P (v. 10–12)

¹⁰ Yet it was the will of the Lord to crush Him; He has put Him to grief; when His soul makes an offering for guilt, He shall see His offspring; He shall prolong His days; the will of the Lord shall prosper in His hand. ¹¹ Out of the anguish of His soul He shall see and be satisfied; by His knowledge shall the Righteous One, My Servant, make many to be accounted righteous, and He shall bear their iniquities.

¹² Therefore I will divide Him a portion with the many, and He shall divide the spoil with the strong, because He poured out His soul to death and was numbered with the transgressors; yet He bore the sin of many, and makes intercession for the transgressors.

The sinless Son of God must die in sadness;
The sinful child of man may live in gladness;
We forfeited our lives yet are acquitted;
God is committed!

REFLECTION

P It is finished.
Stop and listen a moment.
Let the words wind through your heart.
Imagine the cry from the cross.
The sky is dark.
The other two victims are moaning.
Jeering mouths of the crowd are silent.
Perhaps there is thunder.
Perhaps there is weeping.
Perhaps there is silence.
Then Jesus draws in a deep breath, pushes His feet down on that Roman nail and cries, "It is finished!"
What was finished?
The history-long plan of redeeming man was finished.
The message of God to man was finished.
The works done by Jesus as a man on earth were finished.
The sting of death had been removed.
Jesus really died for you.
Jesus really died for me.

CONFESSION

P Throughout these days of Lent, we have solemnly and reflectively followed Jesus' mission for the salvation of the world. Tonight, as we confront the culmination of Jesus' Passion, we are compelled to face the harsh reality of our sin and the brokenness that it brings.

C Lord God, we need Your grace and forgiveness. We have failed to follow Your will and refused to obey Your law. We are unwilling to fulfill Your plan. We are crushed under the weight of our sin, and tonight this harsh reality hangs heavy on us. It is our sin that made the cross necessary and required the Savior's death. Lord God, we need Your grace and forgiveness.

ABSOLUTION

P We need a Savior. It was sin that made the cross necessary, but it was love that drove Jesus to the cross and held Him there. It was love for you. Because of His love and His perfect sacrifice, your sins have been covered. The debt has been paid. The burden has been removed. As you hear and experience that reality tonight, know that you have God's grace and forgiveness. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

PRAYER

P Let us pray.

Almighty God, graciously behold this Your family for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be betrayed and delivered into the hands of sinful men to suffer death upon the cross; through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

HYMN

“O Sacred Head, Now Wounded”

O sacred Head, now wounded, with grief and shame weighed down,
Now scornfully surrounded with thorns, Thine only crown;
O sacred Head, what glory, what bliss, till now was Thine!
Yet, though despised and gory, I joy to call Thee mine.

What Thou, my Lord, hast suffered, was all for sinners' gain;
Mine, mine was the transgression, but Thine the deadly pain.
Lo, here I fall, my Savior! 'Tis I deserve Thy place;
Look on me with Thy favor, And grant to me Thy grace.

What language shall I borrow to thank Thee, dearest Friend,
For this, Thy dying sorrow, Thy pity without end?
Oh, make me Thine forever, and should I fainting be,
Lord, let me never, never outlive my love to Thee.

LITURGY OF THE CROSS

At this time, you are invited to come forward to drive your nail into the cross. As you drive your nail you may softly speak these words:

“Lord Jesus, You were crucified for me. Lord, have mercy.” It is also fitting to meditate on Psalms 22 and 31 during this time (see your pew Bible or hymnal).

SPECIAL MUSIC

“I Should Have Been Crucified”

Words and Music by G. Jensen

Karon Keup, soloist

ADMONISHMENTS

P Thus says the Lord: “What have I done to you, O My people, and how have I offended you? Answer Me. For I have raised you up out of the prison house of sin and death, and you have delivered up your Redeemer to be scourged. For I have redeemed you from the house of bondage, and you have nailed your Savior to the cross. O My people.”

C Holy Lord God, holy and mighty God, holy and most merciful Redeemer; God eternal, do not allow us to die an eternal death. O Lord, have mercy.

P Thus says the Lord: “What have I done to you, O My people, and how have I offended you? Answer Me. For I have conquered all your foes, and you have delivered Me to those who persecute Me. For I have fed you with My Word and refreshed you with living water, and you have given Me gall and vinegar to drink. O My people.”

C Holy Lord God, holy and mighty God, holy and most merciful Redeemer; God eternal, allow us not to lose hope in the face of death and hell. O Lord, have mercy.

P Thus says the Lord: “What have I done to you, O My people, and how have I offended you? Answer Me. What more could have been done for My vineyard than I have done for it? When I looked for good grapes, why did it yield only bad? My people, is this how you thank your God? O My people.”

C Holy Lord God, holy and mighty God, holy and most merciful Redeemer; God eternal, keep us steadfast in the true faith. O Lord, have mercy.

LORD’S PRAYER

C Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

SPECIAL MUSIC

“Father, Forgive Them”

Words and Music by C. Scialla

Ascension Choir

*Lamb of God, most holy, Lamb of God, most pure,
Lamb of God, on the cross You died for us.
“Father, forgive them.”*

*Lord of tender mercy, from the depths You cry,
“Into Your hands, O Father, I now commend My spirit.”*

*Lamb of God, most holy, Your conquered sin for us all.
Your victory has freed us from death forever more.*

*Lord of great redemption, O Lord of steadfast love,
You gained for us salvation. Our souls have been renewed.*

*Death no longer binds us. O death, where is your sting?
Salvation is God’s promise, victorious is our King!*

“Were You There?”

Were you there when they crucified my Lord?
Were you there when they crucified my Lord?
Oh...sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.
Were you there when they crucified my Lord?

Were you there when they nailed Him to the tree?
Were you there when they nailed Him to the tree?
Oh...sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.
Were you there when they nailed Him to the tree?

Were you there when they laid Him in the tomb?
Were you there when they laid Him in the tomb?
Oh...sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.
Were you there when they laid Him in the tomb?

Our Mission Statement:

~Go and Share Jesus Christ~

Our Vision Statement:

“Take part...Join Jesus on His mission.”

The members of Ascension Lutheran Church are committed to being God’s witnesses in Gresham, and in all of Portland and the Northwest, and to the ends of the earth (Acts 1:8):

With the universal Christian Church, we believe, teach and respond to the love of the Triune God— the Father, Creator of all that exists; the Son Jesus Christ, Who left His home in Heaven to become flesh and blood, to suffer and die for the sins of all peoples of the world, and Who rose from the grave, victorious over sin, death and the devil, that we too might live with Him in Heaven; and the Holy Spirit, Who creates faith in our hearts in Christ Jesus through God’s Word and Sacrament. The three Persons of the Holy Trinity are one God, co-equal and co-eternal. The core teachings of our faith from the Lutheran perspective can be summarized in three short phrases: Grace alone, Scripture alone, Faith alone.
