

The Acts of Ascension

Through My Window

By: Pastor
Jim Sprengle

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

⁶ You will do well to send them on their journey in a manner worthy of God. ⁷ For they have gone out for the sake of the Name, accepting nothing from the Gentiles. ⁸ Therefore we ought to support people like these, that we may be fellow workers for the truth," (3 John 1:6b-8, ESV).

"11 So shall My word be that goes out from My mouth; it shall not return to Me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it," (Isaiah 55:11, ESV).

For several years, Ascension Lutheran has emphasized stewardship during the month of October. Although October has no special place for this emphasis, it's as good a month as any to highlight the importance of managing the gifts God provides each of us. In our Confirmation classes, we learn about our daily bread, or how God meets our bodily needs through the air we breathe, the water we drink, the food we eat, and all other needs of body and life. Sometimes we overlook the basics of how God supports us in every way.

Yes, we give thanks to God for meeting these needs, but He also provides for the greatest need of all: the Good News that Jesus died and rose to give eternal life to all who believe in Him. In fact, as Christians, we recognize that God not only meets our every need but also calls us to support the preaching of the Word and the work of sharing that Gospel message with all the world.

Through the Church, or all who believe in Jesus Christ as their Savior and Lord, God equips and sends out laborers into the harvest field to share this Gospel message. Our offerings help support that work. Pastors are called, missionaries are sent, children are taught, ministries are supported, and the Word continues to be proclaimed. Yet, as Isaiah reminds us, the power is not in us or even in our giving. God promises that His Word "shall not return to Me empty," but will accomplish the purpose for which He sends it.

As John encourages Christians to be "fellow workers for the truth," he means that supporting the proclamation of the Word is one way we take part in God's mission of bringing the saving Gospel to others. We at Ascension don't rely on outside or secular funding to share the Gospel. We are an individual congregation, supported through the gifts of our members and fellow believers, to share the Word in our community, our region, and our world (Acts 1:8).

On October 18, we approach the altar with our personal commitments to God (see the newsletter announcement). As we place those commitments in the commitment chest, which remains at the altar throughout the year, we prayerfully consider how the gifts God has first given us can be used in His service. John gives us a wonderful way of thinking about that support: through it, we become "fellow workers for the truth."

Blessings,

Pastor Jim

¡Gracia y paz a ustedes, de Dios nuestro Padre y del Señor Jesucristo!

⁶ Harás bien en ayudarlos a seguir su viaje, como es digno de Dios. ⁷ Ellos salieron por causa del Nombre, sin nunca recibir nada de los paganos; ⁸ nosotros, por lo tanto, debemos brindarles hospitalidad, y así colaborar con ellos en la Verdad," (3 Juan 1:6b-8, NVI).

"11 Así es también la palabra que sale de mi boca: No volverá a mí vacía, sino que hará lo que yo deseo y cumplirá con mis propósitos," (Isaías 55:11, NVI).

Durante varios años, Ascension Lutheran ha puesto un énfasis especial en la mayordomía durante el mes de octubre. Aunque octubre no tiene un significado especial para este tema, es tan buen mes como cualquier otro para recordar la importancia de administrar los dones que Dios nos da a cada uno de nosotros. En nuestras clases de Confirmación aprendemos acerca del pan de cada día, es decir, cómo Dios suplente nuestras necesidades físicas por medio del aire que respiramos, el agua que bebemos, la comida que comemos y todas las demás necesidades del cuerpo y de la vida. A veces pasamos por alto estas cosas tan básicas y no nos damos cuenta de cuánto Dios nos sostiene en todo.

Sí, damos gracias a Dios porque Él suplente estas necesidades, pero también provee para la necesidad más grande de todas: las Buenas Nuevas de que

THROUGH MY WINDOW

Jesús murió y resucitó para dar vida eterna a todos los que creen en Él. De hecho, como cristianos, reconocemos que Dios no solamente suple todas nuestras necesidades, sino que también nos llama a apoyar la predicación de la Palabra y la obra de compartir este mensaje del Evangelio con todo el mundo.

Por medio de la Iglesia, es decir, de todos los que creen en Jesucristo como su Salvador y Señor, Dios prepara y envía obreros a la mies para compartir este mensaje del Evangelio. Nuestras ofrendas ayudan a sostener esta obra. Se llaman pastores, se envían misioneros, se enseña a los niños, se apoyan ministerios y la Palabra sigue siendo proclamada. Sin embargo, como nos recuerda Isaías, el poder no está en nosotros, ni siquiera en nuestras ofrendas. Dios promete que Su Palabra “no volverá a Mí vacía,” sino que cumplirá el propósito para el cual Él la envía.

Cuando Juan anima a los cristianos a ser “colaboradores de la verdad,” nos está diciendo que apoyar la proclamación de la Palabra es una manera en que participamos en la misión de Dios de llevar el Evangelio de salvación a los demás. En Ascension no dependemos de fondos externos o seculares para compartir el Evangelio. Somos una congregación local sostenida por las ofrendas de nuestros miembros y de otros creyentes, para compartir la Palabra en nuestra comunidad, nuestra región y nuestro mundo (Hechos 1:8).

El 18 de octubre nos acercaremos al altar con nuestros compromisos personales delante de Dios (vea el anuncio en el boletín informativo). Al colocar esos compromisos en el cofre de compromiso, que permanecerá junto al altar durante todo el año, consideramos en oración cómo podemos usar al servicio de Dios los dones que Él primero nos ha dado. Juan nos da una manera maravillosa de pensar en este apoyo: por medio de él, llegamos a ser “colaboradores de la verdad.”

Bendiciones,

Pr Jim

COMMITMENT SUNDAY

God's Gifts to Us...Our Lives to Him

On Sunday, October 18, we will dedicate our commitments to the Lord, placing them in the offering chest on the altar. These commitments are not for others to see, but between you and God alone. If you can't attend that service, you may bring or send your commitment form any time before or after. Look for them in printed form on the table as you leave the Narthex and through email prior to Commitment Sunday.

May God grant us faith to trust His provision and the courage to serve Him boldly in this season of blessing.

MY FATHER'S HOUSE NEWS

NEEDS: It is time for us to outfit a new family with essentials at My Father's House. Please check out the whiteboard in the Church Narthex to see what you can donate. Write your name by the item you will buy and then bring it to the Community room after you have bought it. All items must be new and unopened. Thank you for your generosity!

Join us October 8 and 9 for this 24 hour event, as Executive Director Andrea Pickett sits on a bench outside the shelter, live streaming one-on-one conversations with community members, local leaders, former program participants, donors, and passersby.

This bench is more than just a seat – it serves as a platform for truth-telling, healing, and hope. Each conversation offers an opportunity to see beyond stereotypes, connect with the humanity behind homelessness, and witness the life-changing impact of compassion and support.

This event will again be part of Conversations on a Bench, a nationwide movement led by Citygate Network, with more than 100 ministry leaders across North America participating simultaneously. Together, we will continue to raise awareness of homelessness, shift perceptions, and invite communities to engage in meaningful dialogue.

Ways People Can Participate:

- Watch the livestream on Facebook or YouTube throughout the 24-hour event.
- Visit in person at My Father's House in Gresham to experience the conversations firsthand.
- Give generously to help sustain the year-round programs of My Father's House, which provide shelter, restoration, and long-term transformation for families experiencing homelessness.

Every story matters – and together, we create a community where hope takes root and lives are restored.

Watch for more news to come about this event from our Human Care Board!

All Saints' Day Remembrance Luncheon

You are warmly invited to this special gathering Sunday, Nov. 1 from 12:30 to 3:00pm in the Community Room. For anyone grieving the death of a loved one. Whether your loss was recent or many years ago, you are welcome.

Please bring a meaningful memento that reminds you of your loved one. During our time together, each person will have an opportunity to share what they brought and why it is special to them. Becky Oswald, grief coach and thanatologist, will gently guide us as we share a meal, tell stories, and remember those we hold dear. As someone who specializes in helping people navigate death, loss, and grief, Becky will create a caring and supportive space for us to remember, share, and connect with one another.

Space is limited to twenty, and an RSVP is needed: office@alcportland.org or 503-665-8821

PRAY FOR OUR STAFF AND SERVANTS

Please remember to keep Pastor Jim and Michele, Brad and Jessica, Carrie, and their families in your daily prayers. May the Lord strengthen and encourage them in their service, bless their families with peace and joy, and keep them rooted in His Word and love.

We give You thanks for the faithful hands and hearts of all who serve at Ascension. Bless the workers in our congregation—the volunteers and leaders—who give their time, energy, and love. Strengthen them in their tasks, refresh them when they are weary, and remind them that their service is pleasing in Your sight. May their work bring glory to Your name and joy to those they serve. Keep them always rooted in Your Word and filled with the hope of Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.

PROPERTY MANAGEMENT REPORT - OCTOBER 2026

Our fluorescent (tube) light fixtures have been replaced – along with 2 outside security lights. All of the new fixtures have motion sensors in them so they will activate and deactivate on their own, however, we did have a few of the fixtures set to be manually operated. All of the new fixtures and the installation were paid for by Energy Trust of Oregon. Our tax dollars at work!

About 18 people came to outside work party on September 12th. In addition to pressure washing, lots of extra trimming and weeding were done - filling a dump trailer. Also, the roof of the building was cleaned of debris and gutters, downspouts and drains were cleared. A huge thank you to all who helped out!!!

There are 2 toilets that need to be installed in the basement. The wax rings and supply lines are with them.

The arborvitae on the South fence line desperately needs trimming. It will probably need someone with special equipment.

Our annual fire inspection is coming up and the storm drains will also be cleaned. Cleaning and maintenance of our HVAC systems is scheduled for November 2nd.

SHARING THE LOVE OF JESUS WITH CHILDREN AROUND THE WORLD

The Human Care Board is sponsoring an Operation Christmas Child collection event September 20 through November 22.

Operation Christmas Child is a program developed by Samaritan’s Purse to share Jesus’ love with children around the world. To participate in the project, please pick up shoebox(es), instruction sheet(s), and label(s) in the Narthex under the coat rack. Then fold the shoebox and fill it with gifts, school supplies, Christian items and personal care items. Shoebox gift suggestions are included on the instruction sheets. When your box is completed, just place it under the coat rack in the Narthex by November 22. On November 22 all the boxes will be delivered to the Operation Christmas Child Gresham area collection site. Then all the boxes will be shipped destinations around the world and delivered to children in need.

Thanks for helping children around the world!

MODEL PLANES FOR MISSIONS

Over the last year, I have built a collection of hand crafted 1:27 scale models of the famous Piper Cub from the 1930s. In years past, I built simpler, smaller models, and together with my family, raised a modest amount of money for LCMS Mission Central in support of their mission in Ukraine. Now I have decided to use this gift that God has given me on a larger scale. This is (for me) a non-profit project, with 100% of the proceeds from my models going towards LCMS Mission Central. Mission Central is the largest network of dedicated people providing support to the LCMS Office of International Mission, a successor to LCMS World Mission, as well as the LCMS Iowa District West and LCMS Nebraska District. Mission Central continues to be blessed by God, facilitating millions of dollars every year to send and keep missionaries in the mission field, and strengthen districts in their support of local congregation/ community mission efforts. By placing a bid on one of my models, you are supporting missions all over the world.

$360.00 raised since June 2026.
